Bbc Summer Internships 2025 Programmes

Career Details

BBC, one of the world's largest media organizations, is offering exciting summer internships for 2024, including a Funding Partnership Officer position based in Pirbright. The successful candidate will play a critical role in the development and delivery of funding and partnership strategies for various BBC programs.

Tasks

The Funding Partnership Officer will be responsible for identifying and securing new sources of funding and partnership opportunities for the BBC's programs. This includes working with external partners and stakeholders to develop and maintain relationships, researching funding opportunities and writing proposals, and tracking progress and results.

Knowledge

The ideal candidate should have at least 2-3 years of experience in fundraising or partnership development, ideally in the media industry. Experience in proposal writing and the ability to manage projects is highly desirable.

Rewards

As a BBC summer intern, you will have the opportunity to gain valuable experience working with one of the world's most respected media organizations. You will receive training and support, as well as the chance to work on exciting projects and develop your skills.

Achievements

The ideal candidate should have a bachelor's degree in a relevant field such as business, finance, or marketing, or relevant work experience. A strong understanding of the media industry and experience in fundraising and partnership development is highly desirable.

Proficiencies

The successful candidate should have excellent communication skills and the ability to build and maintain relationships with external stakeholders. Strong research and analytical skills are necessary, as is the ability to work independently and as part of a team.
